Send the Light (1, 3, 4) Hymn #437

There's a call comes ringing o'er the restless wave,
"Send the light! Send the light!"

There are souls to rescue; there are souls to save.
Send the light! Send the light!

Send the light, the blessed gospel light;

Let it shine from shore to shore!

Send the light, the blessed gospel light;

Let it shine forever more!

Let us pray that grace may everywhere abound;
"Send the light! Send the light!"

And a Christ like spirit everywhere be found;
Send the light! Send the light!

Let us no grow weary in the work of love;
"Send the light! Send the light!"

Let us gather jewels for a crown above;
Send the light! Send the light!

People Need the Lord (1, 2...2x) Hymn #445

People need the Lord, people need to Lord;
At the end of broken dreams, He's the open door.

People need the Lord, people need the Lord;
When will we realize people need the Lord.

Sermon: "Being An Effective Witness"

KCC Daily Devotion

I Know a Name (I AM THEY, Chase & Co.)

I know a name that can silence roaring waves

I know a name that can empty out a grave

I know a name, it's the only name that saves

And it's worthy of all praise

I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Healer

Risen and reigning in power

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call Your name

I have a King with dominion over death

He holds the keys in His holy nail-scarred hands

He is the heel that has crushed the serpent's head

Our resurrected Great I Am

I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Healer

Risen and reigning in power

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Savior

Worthy of glory forever

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call Your name

Chains break, dry bones wake

Every time I call Your name

The gates of Hell shake

Every time I call Your name

Mmmmm....

Where, oh death, is now your sting?

And where, oh grave, your victory? (Repeat)

Dead things come alive. Dead things come alive.

Dead things come alive in the name of Jesus(repeat)

(Chorus)

Communion Meditation & Closing Prayer: Cameron Bailey

Monday: Nobody follows Jesus alone. As Paul begins wrapping up Colossians, he starts naming names. Check Colossians 4:7–9 today. Tychicus encouraged, Onesimus served, but both mattered. God never intended the church to be a bunch of individuals who happen to sit in the same building on Sunday. We're a TEAM...different gifts, different personalities, different jobs, but the same mission. Who on our "team" could use some encouragement today? Lord, thank You for the people You've placed around me. Help me appreciate and encourage them while doing my part for Your Kingdom. In Jesus' name, amen.

Tuesday: Read Colossians 4:10–11 and notice something that's easy to miss: Paul had people who simply stayed with him. Ministry ain't always preaching, teaching, singing, or doing something everybody notices. Sometimes ministry is just being there. Sitting beside somebody. Calling. Checking in. Showing up when life gets ugly. You don't have to have all the right words...just being there speaks volumes. Don't underestimate the ministry of simply being there. Lord, make me somebody others can count on. Help me notice who needs me to show up today and love them well. In the perfect name of Jesus, amen.

Wednesday: Epaphras wasn't physically with the Colossians...but he was fighting for them in prayer. Read Colossians 4:12–13. Paul says Epaphras was "always wrestling" for them in his prayers. That's team mentality! We often tell folks, "I'll pray for you," but quickly forget. Your church family needs more than your attendance...They need your prayers. Your preacher, elders, deacons, small group leaders need them. Your family needs them. Somebody needs you wrestling for them today. Lord, teach me to pray faithfully for the people You've placed in my life. Help me fight for them on my knees. In Jesus' name, amen.

Thursday: Teams are made up of imperfect people, and sometimes people disappoint us. In Colossians 4:14. Paul mentions Demas as a fellow worker. In 2 Timothy 4:10, we find out Demas deserted him. People might let us down. Church folks hurt us. Teammates quit. But, somebody else's failure doesn't give us permission to quit our assignment. Keep loving, serving, following Jesus. Lord, when people disappoint me, keep my heart from becoming bitter. Help me remain faithful to You and Your Team as we work together. In Jesus, amen.

Friday: "Tell Archippus, 'Pay attention to the ministry you have received in the Lord, so that you can accomplish it.'" Read Colossians 4:15–17. Church...that ain't just for Archippus! God's given us a job to do. You have a ministry. Encourage, serve, invite, love folks. Use what God's given you instead of worrying about what He gave somebody else. The team needs you doing YOUR part. Lord, show me where You want me serving and give me the faithfulness to finish what You've given me to do. In Jesus' name, amen.

Saturday: Read Colossians 4:7–18. Paul closes this incredible letter by mentioning 11 folks in twelve verses. He knew something we sometimes forget: we need each other. For months we've walked through Colossians learning what it means to be "Complete in Christ." We are complete IN CHRIST..., but we weren't meant to follow Christ alone. We're family. We're teammates. We are the Church. Lord, thank You for everyone who walks beside me. Help us serve and love while carrying the Gospel farther as a team. Through Jesus, amen.
