Victory in Jesus (1, 2, 3) Hymn #353

I heard an old, old story, how a Savior came from glory,
How He gave His life on Calvary to save a wretch like me.
I heard about His groaning, of His precious blood's atoning,
Then I repented of my sins and won the victory.

O victory in Jesus, my Savior forever!
He sought me and bo't me with His redeeming blood.
He loved me ere I knew Him, and all my love is due Him.
He plunged me to victory beneath the cleansing flood.

I heard about His healing, of His cleansing pow'r revealing,
How he made the lame to walk again and caused the blind to see. And then I cried, "Dear Jesus, come and heal my broken spirit." And somehow Jesus came and bro't to me the victory.

I head about a mansion He has built for me in glory,
And I head about the streets of gold beyond the crystal sea;
About the angels singing, and the old redemption story;
And some sweet day I'll sing up thereto song of victory.

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God (1, 4) Hymn #151

A mighty fortress is our God,
A bulwark never failing;
Our helper He amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe-
His craft and pow'r are great,
And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

That word above all earthly pow'rs,
No thanks to them, abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Thro' Him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also-
The body they may kill;
God's truth abideth still:
His kingdom is forever.

Sermon: "The Battle's Already Won!"

Living Hope (Worship Initiative, Shane & Shane)

How great the chasm that lay between us
How high the mountain I could not climb
In desperation, I turned to heaven
And spoke Your name into the night
Then through the darkness, Your loving kindness
Tore through the shadows of my soul
The work is finished, the end is written
Jesus Christ, my living hope
Who could imagine so great a mercy?
What heart could fathom such boundless grace?
The God of ages stepped down from glory
To wear my sin and bear my shame
The cross has spoken, I am forgiven
The King of kings calls me His own
Beautiful Savior, I'm Yours forever
Jesus Christ, my living hope

Hallelujah, praise the One who set me free
Hallelujah, death has lost its grip on me
You have broken every chain
There's salvation in Your name
Jesus Christ, my living hope (repeat 1x)

Then came the morning that sealed the promise
Your buried body began to breathe
Out of the silence, the Roaring Lion
Declared the grave has no claim on me
Then came the morning that sealed the promise
Your buried body began to breathe
Out of the silence, the Roaring Lion
Declared the grave has no claim on me
Jesus, Yours is the victory! (CHORUS)
Jesus Christ, my living hope
God, You are my living hope

KCC Daily Devotion

Monday: We spend a whole lot of time worrying about things that won't matter a hundred years from now. Jesus reminds us in Matthew 10:28 that there's something far more important than what happens to these earthly bodies. Our souls matter, and eternity is real! Hell ain't something Jesus invented to scare folks. It's a reality He warned us about because He loves us. Read Matthew 10:28 today. Lord, help us take eternity seriously and live with our eyes on You. Help us live for You. Lord, we don't want an eternity separated from You. We truly need You now. Hold us closely and lead us on. In Jesus' name, amen.
Tuesday: Everybody's going somewhere when this life is over. Jesus makes that clear in John 5:29. There's a resurrection to both life and judgment. There used to be a Christian placard that was popular in the 90's that had a frog saying, "Life's no joke…where you goin' when you croak"? This ain't a popular conversation, but ignoring something doesn't make it disappear. The wonderful news is that God doesn't leave us guessing about the way to eternal life. His name is JESUS! Check out John 5:24–29 today. Father, help us trust Jesus, follow Him faithfully, and share His saving grace with others. In Jesus, amen.
Wednesday: Life was carrying on as usual in Noah's day. Folks were eating, drinking, getting married, and making plans. Then the flood came! Jesus used that example in Matthew 24:38–39 to remind us how easily people can become distracted from what's coming. There's nothing wrong with enjoying life, but don't get so busy living that you forget eternity! Look over Matthew 24:36–44 sometime today. Lord, help us stay spiritually awake, prepared, and faithful while we still have today. Life's full of distractions. We need You more than ever. Help us stay focused and fixated on what awaits. In Jesus' name, amen.
Thursday: Thanksgiving reminds us of blessings we can see, taste, touch, and enjoy. But there's a blessing greater than anything on our tables. Daniel 12:2 reminds us that death isn't the end. Some will awaken to everlasting life, others to everlasting disgrace. That's a sobering truth! Today, while you're counting blessings, don't overlook God's greatest gift…Jesus Christ, who offers us eternal life! Read Daniel 12:1–3 today. Father, thank You for Your love, mercy, and the hope of everlasting life through Jesus Christ. In His name, I pray, amen.
Friday: We live in a world where folks want the rewards without the responsibility. But eternity ain't something to take lightly! Romans 2:7–8 reminds us that our response to God's truth matters. We aren't saved by being good enough; we're saved through Jesus Christ, and genuine faith changes how we live. Don't just talk about following Jesus. FOLLOW HIM! Check out Romans 2:6–11 today. Lord, help our faith be genuine, our obedience sincere, and our lives a reflection of Your grace. Thank You. In Jesus' name, amen.
Saturday: In Luke 16, Jesus tells about a rich man who discovered too late that eternity is REAL. He begged for relief, then begged for someone to warn his brothers. But his opportunity had passed. Here's the GOOD NEWS: Ours hasn't! God has made a way for us to escape condemnation, and His name is JESUS! Don't wait until tomorrow to take Him seriously. Study Luke 16:19–31 today. Lord, give us hearts that respond to Your Word today and courage to tell others about Jesus while there's time. In the perfect name of Jesus, amen.
