Welcome, Announcements & Prayer:

- Text the code: KENBRIDGECC to 49775 for access to RightNow Media and unlimited Bible Study items.
- If you'd like to make a donation towards the "Good Samaritan" fund, please place your donation in the baskets held by the elders after worship.
- The KCC Board will meet Tuesday night at 7pm.
- KCC's "Trunk-or-Treat": Today from 3-5:30 at the Ford's residence (480 Pond Dr., Kenbridge).
- Harvest Festival is 1 week from this Saturday on November 7th! Plan on enjoying supper with an auction to follow downstairs in the fellowship hall beginning at 5:30pm that night. From 8am until after lunch enjoy helping cook Brunswick stew at the Dundas Ruritan building that day. On Friday the 6th at 2pm join a "peeling party" of onions in preparation.
- Our scripture focus comes from Romans 8:38-39 - "For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Blessed Assurance (1, 3) Hymn #572

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
O what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long;
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.

Perfect submission- all is at rest,
I in my Savior am happy and blest;
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love.

It Is Well with My Soul (1, 2, 3, 4) Hymn #705

When peace like a river attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
"It is well, it is well with my soul."

It is well
with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

Tho' Satan should buffet, tho' trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

My sin- O, the bliss of this glorious tho't-
My sin- not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

And, Lord, haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll,
The trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend,
"Even so"- it is well with my soul.

Sermon: "The Warmth of God's Arms"

KCC Daily Devotion

I Know a Name (I AM THEY, Chase & Co.)

I know a name that can silence roaring waves

I know a name that can empty out a grave

I know a name, it's the only name that saves

And it's worthy of all praise

I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Healer

Risen and reigning in power

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call Your name

I have a King with dominion over death

He holds the keys in His holy nail-scarred hands

He is the heel that has crushed the serpent's head

Our resurrected Great I Am

I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Healer

Risen and reigning in power

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Savior

Worthy of glory forever

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call Your name

Chains break, dry bones wake

Every time I call Your name

The gates of Hell shake

Every time I call Your name

Mmmmm....

Where, oh death, is now your sting?

And where, oh grave, your victory? (Repeat)

Dead things come alive. Dead things come alive.

Dead things come alive in the name of Jesus(repeat)

(Chorus)

Communion Meditation & Closing Prayer: Derrick Hall

Monday: Have you ever planted a tiny seed and wondered how in the world something so beautiful could come from something so small? God does some amazing things with seeds! Read 1 Corinthians 15:35–38 today. Paul uses something as simple as farming to explain something as incredible as the resurrection. What goes into the ground isn't nearly as glorious as what God brings out of it! And for those who belong to Jesus, the same is true of our bodies. Lord, thank You that death isn't the end of our story. In Jesus, amen.

Tuesday: Getting older ain't for the faint of heart! Things hurt that didn't used to hurt. Things sag that didn't used to sag. Our bodies begin to come with their own sound effects. Read 1 Corinthians 15:42–44 for some good news. These earthly bodies are temporary, but God promises His children something better. No more weakness, deterioration, or death. One day, what's perishable will be raised imperishable! Don't let your body bring you down. God has promised resurrection! Lord, thank You for the hope we have. In Jesus, amen.

Wednesday: A farmer doesn't plant a seed expecting to dig up that exact same seed months later. He's expecting something better that grows, flourishes, and produces fruit. Paul reminds us in 1 Corinthians 15:37–38 that what gets planted isn't what comes out the ground. Think about that when considering eternity. God isn't simply promising to patch up our worn-out bodies. He's promising resurrection bodies suited for eternal life with Him! What a glorious future awaits those who belong to Jesus! Father, help me trust Your promises even when I can't imagine what You've prepared. In Jesus' name, amen.

Thursday: Think of all the time you spend worrying about your body. We worry about wrinkles, gray hair, aches, pains, and everything else that comes with getting older. But read Philippians 3:20–21 today. Paul reminds us that our citizenship is in heaven and Jesus will transform our humble bodies to be like His glorious body. That'll make you smile. This world ain't the end, and this body ain't permanent. Something much-more-gooder is coming! Lord, help me spend less time worrying about temporary things and more time preparing for eternity. Even when this body tests my patience...I trust in You. In Jesus, amen.

Friday: Imagine waking up one morning and discovering that every ache, every pain, every limitation, and every sign of aging...GONE! No prescriptions. No doctor appointments. No more funerals. Sounds amazing, don't it? Read Revelation 21:4 alongside 1 Corinthians 15:53–54. For those in Christ, this ain't some fairy tale or wishful thinking. It's a promise from God who cannot lie! Death doesn't get the final word. JESUS DOES! Whatever physical struggles you're facing today, remember that they won't follow you into eternity. Father, thank You for the glorious future awaiting Your children. Through Jesus, amen.

Saturday: Change can be difficult. Sometimes we resist it, sometimes we fear it, and sometimes change is needed! But there's one change every Christian ought to be looking forward to. Read 1 Corinthians 15:51–52. Paul tells us that we will all be changed in an instant! These earthly bodies weren't designed to last forever, and God has something glorious prepared for those who belong to Jesus. Tomorrow we'll talk about that incredible transformation and why the resurrection changes EVERYTHING. The best is yet to come! Lord, keep my eyes focused on eternity and my heart on You. In Jesus' name I pray, amen.
