Love Divine, All Loves Excelling (1, 2, 4) Hymn #648

Love divine, all loves excelling,
Joy in heav'n, to earth come down!
Fix in us Thy humble dwelling;
All Thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, Thou art all compassion;
Pure unbounded love Thou art.
Visit us with Thy salvation;
Enter every trembling heart.

Breathe, O breathe Thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast!
Let us all in Thee inherit;
Let us find the promised rest.
Take away our bent to sinning;
Alpha and Omega be.
End of faith, as its beginning,
Set our hearts at liberty.

Finish then Thy new creation;
Pure and spotless let us be.
Let us see Thy great salvation
Perfectly restored in Thee:
Changed from glory into glory,
'Till in heav'n we take our place,
'Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love and praise.

- Text the code: KENBRIDGECC to 49775 for access to RightNow Media and unlimited Bible Study items.
- Our scripture focus comes from Mark 10:43b-45 -"On the contrary, whoever wants to become great among you will be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you will be a slave to all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

My Jesus, I Love Thee (1 and 2) Hymn #79

My Jesus, I love Thee;
I know Thou art mine.
For Thee all the follies
of sin I resign.
My gracious redeemer,
my Savior art Thou:
If ever I loved Thee,
my Jesus, 'tis now.

I love Thee because
Thou has first lov-ed me
And purchased my pardon
on Calvary's tree.
I love Thee for wearing
the thorns on Thy brow:
If ever I loved Thee,
my Jesus, 'tis now.

I Know A Name (I AM THEY)

I know a name that can silence roaring waves
I know a name that can empty out a grave
I know a name, it's the only name that saves
And it's worthy of all praise

I call You, Jesus
I call You, I call You Healer
Risen and reigning in power
Something comes out of the grave
Every time I call Your name

I have a King with dominion over death
He holds the keys in His holy nail-scarred hands
He is the heel that has crushed the serpent's head
Our resurrected Great I Am

I call You, Jesus
I call You, I call You Healer
Risen and reigning in power
Something comes out of the grave
Every time I call You, Jesus
I call You, I call You Savior
Worthy of glory forever
Something comes out of the grave
Every time I call Your name

Chains break, dry bones wake
Every time I call Your name
The gates of Hell shake
Every time I call Your name

Where, oh death, is now your sting?
And where, oh grave, your victory?
Where, oh death, is now your sting?
And where, oh grave, your victory?

Dead things come alive. Dead things come alive
Dead things come alive in the name of Jesus
Dead things come alive. Dead things come alive
Dead things come alive in the name of Jesus

KCC Daily Devotion

Monday: (Mark 11:1-10) Jesus didn't ride into Jerusalem by accident. He fulfilled prophecy and made a statement. A donkey isn't a war horse...it's a picture of a King who brings peace, not panic. The crowd shouted "Hosanna!" but many of them only wanted Jesus to fix their problems, not rule their hearts. That's the challenge for us too. He is Lord of all...but is He Lord of me? Not just Savior when I'm in trouble...Lord when I'm comfortable. Jesus, rule my heart today. I don't just want Your help, I want Your Lordship. In You, amen.

Tuesday: (Mark 11:1-7) The owners of the colt didn't argue nor negotiate. They simply let Jesus have what He asked for. That's a sneaky powerful detail. Sometimes the clearest sign Jesus is Lord isn't a big sermon...it's a simple yes. "You can have it." Our time, plans, attitude, wallet, schedule. Lordship shows up in what we release. Jesus isn't just asking for Sunday...He's asking for ownership. The question isn't "Do I believe?"...It's "Do I surrender?" Lord, help me release what I'm holding too tightly. You can have it. Through Jesus, amen.

Wednesday: (Mark 11:11) Mark says Jesus entered the temple and "looked around at everything." Then He left. That's sobering. Jesus sees what we overlook. He notices what we tolerate. He inspects what we excuse. And He does it as Lord, not as a guest. We can get good at looking spiritual on the outside while our hearts are cluttered inside. But Jesus walks into the "temple" of our life and looks around. Not to shame us...but to claim us. He loves us too much to leave us unchanged. Good God Almighty, search me today. Show me what needs to change...and give me courage to obey. In Jesus, amen.

Thursday: (Mark 11:12-14, 20-21) Jesus cursed the fig tree because it looked alive but had no fruit. That's the point. It had leaves, but no results. That hits close to home. It's possible to look like, talk like, even attend like a believer...and still not bear fruit. Jesus isn't impressed by leaves. He's looking for love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, and self-control. Lordship isn't just what we say...it's what grows from our life. Lord, don't let me be all leaves and no fruit. Grow something real in me. In Jesus name, amen.

Friday: (Mark 11:15-18) Jesus flipped tables because worship had become business. The temple was meant to be a place of prayer, but it had become a place of noise, greed, and convenience. When Jesus is Lord, He will clean what's contaminated. He'll confront what's corrupt. He'll remove what doesn't belong. And yes...it can feel uncomfortable. But it ain't cruelty...It's love. The Lord doesn't destroy His temple...He restores it. He isn't trying to embarrass you...He's trying to free you. Father, flip whatever needs flipping in me. Make my life a house of prayer again. Build me back better. Through Jesus, amen.

Saturday: (Mark 11:22-25) Jesus connects Lordship to faith, prayer, and forgiveness. If He's Lord, then prayer isn't a last resort...it's our first move. Faith isn't wishful thinking...it's trusting the One who reigns. And forgiveness isn't optional...it's obedience. Jesus says unforgiveness clogs up our prayers. That's heavy. But it's also hopeful, because it means freedom is possible. The Lord of all wants to rule our hearts, not just our circumstances. And when He rules...peace follows. Lord, increase my faith. Teach me to pray. Help me forgive like You forgave me. You are Lord of all I am. In the perfect name of Jesus, amen.
