The Solid Rock (1, 2, 4) Hymn #526

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

When darkness veils His lovely face,
I stand on His unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil.

When He shall come with trumpet sound,
O may I then in Him be found;
Dressed in His righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.

Jesus Paid It All (1, 3, 4) Hymn #305

I hear the Savior say: "Thy strength indeed is small.
Child of weakness, watch and pray;
Find in Me thine all in all."

Jesus paid it all.
All to Him I owe.
Sin had left a crimson stain;
He washed it white as snow.

For nothing good have I whereby Thy grace to claim;
I'll wash my garments white
in the blood of Calv'ry's Lamb.

And when before the throne I stand in Him complete,
"Jesus died my soul to save," my lips shall still repeat.

Sermon: "All Dressed Up!!!"

Living Hope (Worship Initiative, Shane & Shane)

How great the chasm that lay between us
How high the mountain I could not climb
In desperation, I turned to heaven
And spoke Your name into the night
Then through the darkness, Your loving kindness
Tore through the shadows of my soul
The work is finished, the end is written
Jesus Christ, my living hope
Who could imagine so great a mercy?
What heart could fathom such boundless grace?
The God of ages stepped down from glory
To wear my sin and bear my shame
The cross has spoken, I am forgiven
The King of kings calls me His own
Beautiful Savior, I'm Yours forever
Jesus Christ, my living hope

Hallelujah, praise the One who set me free
Hallelujah, death has lost its grip on me
You have broken every chain
There's salvation in Your name
Jesus Christ, my living hope (repeat 1x)

Then came the morning that sealed the promise
Your buried body began to breathe
Out of the silence, the Roaring Lion
Declared the grave has no claim on me
Then came the morning that sealed the promise
Your buried body began to breathe
Out of the silence, the Roaring Lion
Declared the grave has no claim on me
Jesus, Yours is the victory! (CHORUS)
Jesus Christ, my living hope
God, You are my living hope

Communion Meditation & Closing Prayer: Jamie Nash

KCC Daily Devotion

Monday: Paul knew his life was nearing its end, but he wasn't throwing himself a pity party! Check out 2 Timothy 4:6–8. He was able to say, “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.” What a testimony! Paul wasn't bragging about being perfect. He was celebrating God's faithfulness and the grace that kept him going. One day, we too will reach our finish line. The question is whether we'll finish faithfully. Lord, help me live today in a way that honors You and keeps my eyes on eternity. In Jesus' name, amen.
Tuesday: You can't take your house, truck, bank account, nor anything else to heaven, but you can make an eternal difference in somebody's life! In 1 Thessalonians 2:19, Paul called the people he'd helped lead to Jesus his hope, joy, and crown of boasting before Christ. Think about it… His greatest treasure wasn't something he'd collected…it was people he'd influenced for eternity. Who are you pointing toward Jesus? Your children? Grandchildren? Friends? Neighbors? Somebody's eternity may be impacted by your faithfulness today. Lord, use my life to help somebody else know and love You. In Jesus, amen.
Wednesday: Following Jesus some days feels like walking uphill with a refrigerator strapped to your back! Life gets hard. Temptations come. Discouragement creeps in. But don't you DARE quit! Look at James 1:12. God promises the crown of life to those who endure trials and remain faithful because they love Him. Notice how James doesn't say life will be easy. He says there's a blessing in persevering. Whatever you're facing today, don't lose sight of WHO is walking with you and what He's promised. Lord, strengthen me when I'm weary and help me remain faithful through every trial. In Jesus, amen.
Thursday: Whether you realize it or not, somebody's learning from the way you live. Little eyes notice. Young hearts remember. And even grown folks pay attention! Read 1 Peter 5:4. Peter reminds church leaders that when the Chief Shepherd appears, they'll receive an unfading crown of glory. Leadership in God's family isn't about getting applause. It's about faithfully caring for those He's entrusted to us. And while Peter's speaking specifically to elders, there's a lesson for ALL of us: our influence matters. Lord, help me lead by example, love people well, and point others toward You instead of me. In Jesus, amen.
Friday: Everybody wants a crown, but nobody gets excited about the suffering that sometimes comes before it! Study Revelation 2:10. Jesus told suffering believers to remain faithful, even to the point of death, and promised them the crown of life. That's not a promise of an easy road. It’s a reminder that our Savior is worth following no matter what happens along the way. Faithfulness ain’t just praising Jesus when life’s good. It's trusting Him even when it hurts. Lord, give me courage to stand firm no matter the cost. In Jesus' name, amen.
Saturday: Imagine standing before Jesus and looking back over every struggle, sacrifice, prayer, and moment you chose faithfulness over giving up. Suddenly, the things that seemed SO important here won't seem quite so important anymore. Reread 2 Timothy 4:8. Paul looked forward to the crown of righteousness that the Lord, the righteous Judge, would award him. This promise ain’t just for Paul! It's for all who long for Christ's appearing. Heaven's greatest reward isn't a crown we get to wear. It's the Savior we'll finally see! Lord, keep my heart focused on You. In the perfect name of Jesus, amen.
