Rescue the Perishing (1, 3, 4) Hymn #441

Rescue the perishing; care for the dying.
Snatch them in pity from sin and the grave.
Weep o'er the erring one; lift up the fallen.
Tell them of Jesus, the mighty to save.

Rescue the perishing; care for the dying.

Jesus is merciful; Jesus will save!

Down in the human heart, crushed by the tempter,
Feelings lie buried that grace can restore.
Touched by a loving heart, wakened by kindness,
Cords that are broken will vibrate once more. (CHORUS)

Rescue the perishing; duty demands it.
Strength for your labor the Lord will provide.
Back to the narrow way patiently win them,
Tell the poor wand'rer a Savior has died. (CHORUS)

Announcements:

- Text the code: KENBRIDGECC to 49775 for access to RightNow Media and unlimited Bible Study items.
- Put VBS on your calendar on August 1st as we go old school and enjoy a "WWJD" theme.
- Our scripture focus comes from 1 Corinthians 9:22-23 - "I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some. I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings."

There Shall Be Showers of Blessing (1, 2, 4)

Hymn #430

There shall be showers of blessing;
This is the promise of love.
There shall be seasons refreshing,
sent from the Savior above.

Showers of blessing, showers of blessing we need.

Mercy drops round us are falling,

But for the showers we plead.

There shall be showers of blessing-
Precious reviving again;
Over the hills and the valleys,
Sound of abundance of rain. (CHORUS)

There shall be showers of blessing;
O that today they might fall,
Now as to God we're confessing,
Now as on Jesus we call! (CHORUS)

Sermon: "The Ripple Effect"

All Because of Mercy (Casting Crowns)

I could stand here And try to tell you
I found my way here on my own
Brought to life this heart of stone
Made up my own mind To change my own life
Working my own way to good As if anybody could
But the truth is I've been broken since my very first breath
And the truth is I've been wandering since my very first step

I know the only reason
I can stand here unashamed
Is not because I'm worthy
It's all because of mercy
There's no way that I could earn it
Praise God, my debt is paid
It's not because I'm worthy
It's all because of mercy
It's all because of mercy

I still remember The day He found me
Six feet under all my shame
I heard Him call me out by name
Hallelujah The cross has spoken
Jesus my Savior bled and died
To bring this dead man back to life

(CHORUS)

I'm just as desperate for You now As I was back then
If I ever should forget Remind me once again (repeat 1x)

(CHORUS)

It's all because of mercy
It's all because of mercy

Communion Meditation & Closing Prayer: Terry Compton

KCC Daily Devotion

Monday: Sometimes we look at someone else's success and think we need to copy them. Yet God didn't make us all the same. Paul adapted his approach to different people, but he never stopped being Paul. God can use your personality, your experiences, and your gifts to reach people others cannot. Don't spend your life trying to be someone else. Be faithful with who God created you to be. Father, help me embrace the gifts and personality You have given me. Use me to reach people for Jesus. In His name I pray, amen.

Tuesday: A hammer works great for nails but is terrible for screws. The same is true in ministry. What works wonderfully for one believer may not fit another. Some connect through teaching. Others through serving, listening, hospitality, or encouragement. The mission remains the same, but the methods may differ. God often uses our unique strengths to open doors for the Gospel. Lord, help me discover and use the tools You have placed in my hands. In Jesus, amen.

Wednesday: Colossians 4:6 reminds us that our speech should be gracious and seasoned with salt. Sharing faith isn't about winning arguments; it's about winning people. Some believers are bold speakers. Others quietly build relationships over time. Both approaches can be effective when guided by God's Spirit. Ask yourself not only what works, but what allows you to faithfully represent Christ. Father, let my words reflect Your grace and truth today. Help me get out of my own way and own wants to reach one more. In Jesus, amen.

Thursday: Comparison steals joy and weakens ministry. We see someone leading Bible studies, preaching sermons, or singing praise beautifully and wonder why we aren't like them. God never asked us to be someone else. He asks us to be faithful. The kingdom grows when each believer uses their own gifts rather than chasing someone else's calling. Lord, free me from comparison and help me serve faithfully where You have planted me. In Jesus name, amen.

Friday: Paul became "all things to all people" because he genuinely cared about people. Evangelism isn't a program; it's a relationship. Some people respond to a sermon. Others need friendship, trust, and time. God may use your ability to listen, encourage, or simply be present. Never underestimate the power of loving people well as you point them toward Jesus. Father, help me build meaningful relationships that honor You and bless others. In Jesus, amen.

Saturday: The world measures success by numbers, but God measures faithfulness. Sometimes an approach may seem effective, yet it doesn't fit the way God designed you. The goal is not becoming the most impressive witness. The goal is becoming an obedient one. When we faithfully use our gifts and trust God with the results, He can accomplish far more than we imagine. Lord, help me focus on faithfulness rather than results. Use my life for Your glory. But, Father, most of all, kick me into gear. Help me stop sitting idle. Put me and my life to action in reaching out to those who don't know You. In Jesus, amen.
