What A Friend We Have In Jesus (1, 2, 3) Hymn #630

What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Savior, still our Refuge;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
In His arms He'll take and shield thee;
Thou wilt find a solace there.

I Surrender All (1, 2) Hymn #596

All to Jesus I surrender,
All to Him I freely give;
I will ever love and trust Him,
In His presence daily live.

I surrender all, I surrender all. All to Thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all.

All to Jesus I surrender,
Humbly at His feet I bow,
Worldly pleasures all forsaken,
Take me, Jesus, take me now.

Morning Message:

Never Going to Give You Up
Eli Bailey preaching

KCC Daily Devotion

Nobody (Casting Crowns)

Why you ever chose me
Has always been a mystery
All my life I've been told I belong at the end of the line
With all the other not-likes
With all the never-get-it-rights
But it turns out they're the ones You were looking for
All this time

'Cause I'm just a nobody

Trying to tell everybody

All about Somebody Who saved my soul

Ever since You rescued me

You gave my heart a song to sing

I'm living for the world to see Nobody but Jesus

I'm living for the world to see Nobody but Jesus

Moses had stage fright
When David brought a rock to a sword fight
You picked twelve outsiders nobody would have chosen
And You changed the world
Well the moral of the story is
Everybody's got a purpose
So when I hear that devil start talking to me saying
"Who do you think you are?" I say (CHORUS)

So let me go down, down, down in history
As another blood-bought faithful member of a family
And if they all forget my name, well that's fine with me
I'm living for the world to see Nobody but Jesus (repeat 1x)

(CHORUS)

I'm living for the world to see Nobody but Jesus.

Communion Meditation & Closing Prayer: Hunter Gary

Monday: "Sometimes you never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory."-Dr. Seuss. One week from today is Memorial Day. This coming Sunday we want to sit back and remember. Life brings us so many laughs, tears, and memories, doesn't it? The laughs fade, the tears dry but the memories can last forever. Good God Almighty, thank You for the memories. Thank You for both the good and bad ones as they lead us, train us guide us into our tomorrows. Help us to cherish these memories daily. In Jesus, amen.

Tuesday: This coming Sunday we will check out a chapter that is one of those types of sections in the Bible we typically skip over...a bunch of names. This message is borrowed from a minister who gave a phenomenal lesson on memories and on how we need to remember things and people from our past. Spend time today and this week remembering. Think of the ones who have brought you to this stage in life. Remember the lessons learned. Recall where you were in your spiritual walk to where you are currently. Now thank God for the journey. Lord, I can't praise You enough for all You are. In Jesus, amen.

Wednesday: Romans Chapter 16 is a long list of names. These are folks that we probably don't know much about. It's names that are hard to pronounce and of whom we have little information on. To us...these names mean little to nothing, but to Paul, these names are filled with memories and life. Check out this list then come up with your own list. Spend time thinking of the ones who have helped you along the way. Ahhhh, the memories. Father, thank You for those who have made me who I am today. Thank You for their leading, their loving, their guiding. Provide all they need as we strive to grow. In Jesus, amen.

Thursday: Someone has said: "Sometimes you don't realize how good the good old days were until they're gone." Ain't that the truth! Isn't it an amazing gift of God to recall people and events from the past? Though things may have happened years ago, it's refreshing to retell those events and stories. To share in the laughter and remember the emotions. Ahhhh, the memories. Take time today to sit still and remember "the good old days". Remember the faces. Relive the stories. Thank God for those memories today. Lord, thank You. Thank You for the gift of memories. Help me never forget where I've been. In Jesus, amen.

Friday: Have you made your list yet from Wednesdays devotion? Take time today to come up with a list of those who made you the person you are today. Maybe it was a parent or grandparent. Maybe a Sunday school or elementary/ middle/high school teacher who impacted you and left a great mark. Perhaps that elderly person from your neighborhood or that coworker really picked you up. Write those names down somewhere. Now pray over those names. Thank God for them and the way they made you better. Lift them up today. Father, thank You for this list. Help me make such an impact too. In Jesus Name, amen.

Saturday: "I thank my God every time I think of you (Philippians 1:3)." With whom are you thankful? I love this verse. We each have our own story. We each have our own memorial wall of names who mean the world to us. Tomorrow you will hear some of the preachers. What about you? Who all is on your memorial wall? Who all is in your list of names? Ahhhh, the memories. Lord, thank You for these names. Help me live the legacy they have left and implanted in me. Help me be the good needed wherever I find myself located. In Jesus name, amen.
