- Our scripture focus comes from John 14:3 - "I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am."

Soon and Very Soon (1, 2, 3) Hymn #757

Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King!
Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King!
Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King!
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! We're going to see the King!

No more crying there- we are going to see the King!
No more crying there- we are going to see the King!
No more crying there- we are going to see the King!
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! We're going to see the King!

No more dying there- we are going to see the King!
No more dying there- we are going to see the King!
No more dying there- we are going to see the King!
Hallelujah! Hallelujah! We're going to see the King!

What a Day That Will Be (1, 2) Hymn #762

There is coming a day when no heartaches shall come-
No more clouds in the sky, no more tears to dim the eye.
All is peace forevermore on that happy golden shore.
What a day, glorious day that will be!

What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see,

And I look upon His face-

The One who saved me by His grace.

When He takes me by the hand
and leads me thro' the Promised Land;

What a day, glorious day that will be!

There'll be no sorrow there, no more burdens to bear,
No more sickness, no pain, no more parting over there.
And forever I will be with the One who died for me.
What a day, glorious day that will be!

The King is Coming (1x) Hymn #763

O the King is coming, the King is coming!
I just heard the trumpets sounding,
And now His face I see.
O the King is coming,
The King is coming!
Praise God, He's coming for me!

Sermon: "When Christ Shall Come"

I Know a Name (I AM THEY, Chase & Co.)

I know a name that can silence roaring waves

I know a name that can empty out a grave

I know a name, it's the only name that saves

And it's worthy of all praise

I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Healer

Risen and reigning in power

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call Your name

I have a King with dominion over death

He holds the keys in His holy nail-scarred hands

He is the heel that has crushed the serpent's head

Our resurrected Great I Am

I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Healer

Risen and reigning in power

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call You, Jesus

I call You, I call You Savior

Worthy of glory forever

Something comes out of the grave

Every time I call Your name

Chains break, dry bones wake

Every time I call Your name

The gates of Hell shake

Every time I call Your name

Mmmmm....

Where, oh death, is now your sting?

And where, oh grave, your victory? (Repeat)

Dead things come alive. Dead things come alive.

Dead things come alive in the name of Jesus(repeat)

(Chorus)

Communion Meditation & Closing Prayer: Terry Compton

KCC Daily Devotion

Monday: Have you ever wished for just ONE more hug from somebody you love who's gone on before you? Maybe one more conversation...one more laugh...one more opportunity to say, "I love you." Death hurts because love runs deep. But for those who belong to Jesus, death doesn't get the final word! Read 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14. Paul reminds us that we grieve...but NOT without hope! Our loved ones in Christ are not forgotten by God, and neither are we. Lord, when grief feels overwhelming, remind us that Your promises are greater than our pain. Ease us with Your calm comfort. In Jesus' name, amen.

Tuesday: What happens to a Christian when they take their final breath? That's a question we've probably all wondered. Paul offers something to hold onto in 2 Corinthians 5:8. He speaks of being away from the body and at home with the Lord. Think about that! For the believer, death isn't being abandoned in some cold, lonely darkness. It's being welcomed into the presence of Jesus! We may not understand details, but we trust the One who holds eternity. Father, replace our fear of death with confidence in Your promises. In Jesus, amen.

Wednesday: Have you ever watched somebody suffer and wished you could take their pain away? That's one of the hardest things about loving. These earthly bodies wear out. They get sick, grow weak, and eventually die. Check out 2 Corinthians 5:1-5. Paul reminds how this earthly home ain't permanent! God has prepared something much-more-gooder. What a comfort knowing that sickness, suffering, and death won't have the final say. Lord, thank You that our struggles are temporary, but Your promises are eternal. Through Jesus, amen.

Thursday: Sometimes we talk about Heaven as though it's simply a beautiful place where we'll see our loved ones again. And what a reunion that'll be! But don't miss the BEST part. JESUS WILL BE THERE! Philippians 3:20 says our citizenship is in Heaven, and we're eagerly waiting for our Savior. Our greatest comfort isn't merely where we're going...but WHO we're going to be with! The same Jesus who loved us enough to die for us will welcome us home. Lord, help us long for Your presence more than anything else. In Jesus' name, amen.

Friday: The cemetery isn't the end of the story! AMEN! Read Philippians 3:20-21. Paul promises that Jesus will transform our humble bodies to be like His glorious body. Think about that...no more broken bodies, no more disease, no more limitations brought on by age. Our hope isn't simply that our souls will live forever. God has promised a RESURRECTION! Jesus defeated death, and those who belong to Him share in that victory. Father, thank You that the grave doesn't get the final word. Help us live confidently in the promise of resurrection. We praise You forever and always. In Jesus' name, amen.

Saturday: There's something wonderfully comforting about being wrapped in the arms of somebody who loves you. You feel safe. Protected. Wanted. Now think about the love of God! We don't know every detail about what happens between death and the resurrection, but we DO know that those who belong to Jesus are safe in His care. Read 2 Corinthians 5:6-10 and 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14. Death cannot separate God's children from His love or destroy the future He's promised. Good God Almighty, comfort every grieving heart and remind us that our greatest security is found in YOU. In Jesus' name, amen.
